

HIGH SCHOOL AND MIDDLE SCHOOL MINISTRY

At local high schools and middle schools, Cru is here to help teenagers and their families as they tackle the issues of life.

Cru is a national organization with locally based teams. Since 1967, our staff members and volunteers have joined hands with parents, educators, churches and community leaders in cities across America, helping students and equipping them to make a positive difference.

We offer resources and programs for students, including meetings, discussion groups, individual mentoring, leadership training, school assemblies, conferences and retreats. In all these activities, students are in touch with people who care and who are able to help them develop in the social, mental and spiritual dimensions of life.

Our staff members, interns and volunteers are trained to better meet the needs of today's youth. Additionally, our full-time staff members receive a college education.

Cru team members, centered on genuine acceptance and faith-based values, are mentors who students can trust and talk with about solutions to life's problems. Our team members also often help coaches, teachers and counselors by serving as motivational speakers for classrooms, clubs or teams, and assist in other ways to enhance the educational process.

The spontaneous lifestyle of young people, full of zeal and optimism, creates an energetic atmosphere for America's campuses and communities.

For many students however, growing up is tough, especially in a complex culture filled with sexual pressures, drug abuse, violence and disintegrating family life.

“We are living in some tough times because our children are in need of someone to listen, to talk to them and just be with them. Thank you, Cru, for what you are doing to help us be successful ...”
