

Drama Summary with Discussion

MAIN CHARACTER: Leroy, man in his mid-thirties, who recently lost his job

SETTING: Leroy's apartment

PLOT: Leroy attempts to find a new job. He makes several calls to potential employers, but he takes the wrong approach because of a negative attitude. He flounders with his job search until his sister calls to confront him about his negative attitude. This is the turning point for Leroy. Leroy calls back one of the potential employers, and this time achieves a positive outcome.

THEME: Having the right attitude leads to the right approach to attaining gainful employment.

KEY PRINCIPLE: My strength or weakness in any situation of life is my attitude. Attitude determines approach; approach determines success or failure.

KEY SCRIPTURE: Matthew 7:24-27

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- What was the crisis that Leroy had to overcome?
- What was it about Leroy that hindered his progress?
- What was his moment of truth?
- Once he recognized his problem, what did he do differently?
- Have you ever faced a crisis like Leroy's?
- What did you do?
- What would you do differently now?
