December 2021

Social Updates For Every Platform

Every month social companies are updating their platforms in small ways that the average user may not see.

It can be a lot to keep up with. Luckily, you don't have to do it all. Check out some of the new updates from Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, and Tik Tok.

One of the most important updates from Instagram is that now everyone can add links to stories.

November 2021 Templates

In this round of templates, many of these stories utilize stickers to get students engaged.

Check the example design at the beginning of each template to see what it could look like on your story!
