

Cru Social

November 2023

Each season brings unique charm, and the fall season is no exception! As the semester progresses and students begin taking their midterms, I hope you can find joy in the simple things of the season, such as warm sweaters, fireside chats, and the smell of freshly baked pies.

Bible Verse Templates

As an additional resource, included below are three Bible verse templates to use as a means of encouragement for students-and staff- in the upcoming month.

“Let all that you do be done in love...” (Story Post)

“He will never leave you nor forsake you...” (Story Post)

“Be still and know...” (Feed Post)

Take the Open Seat

For content from Cru Campus Ministries Evangelistic Initiatives that help students explore faith in Jesus in a way that sees them and their struggles, honors every voice, and adds value to their lives, follow Take the Open Seat.

Here is an Instagram reel featuring Ann Hollis' experience with feeling stuck in needing to perform and measure up. To view the first part of their conversation, visit their YouTube channel.

November Templates

Below you will find templates for November.

November 1-All Saints' Day/Día De Los Muertos (Feed Post)

November 11- Veterans Day (Story Post)

November 13- World Kindness Day (Feed Post)

November 20/November 23- Ideas to Celebrate Thanksgiving (Story Post)/Happy Thanksgiving (Feed Post)

If there are any questions or concerns regarding the November templates, feel free to reach out to me at lauren.berlin@cru.org.

Upcoming Templates for Next Month

December 4 - National Reconciliation Day

December 25 - Christmas

December 31 - New Year's Eve

Quote of the Month

“Being consumed by what other people think of you is the fastest way to forget what God thinks of you.”

-Craig Groeschel
